

Why PUC?

All across Canada, parental rights are being systematically attacked. Special-interest groups have made our schools a political battleground.

The health-care system has usurped the rights of parents to be informed decision-makers. Fiscal lunacy fails to protect future generations from economic and taxation disasters.

Politicians fail to protect the civil & moral agendas of the majority of their constituents. The media deliberately fail to expose transgressions against the cultural values of the majority of Canadians.

Activist judges have ignored, violated and assaulted the very spirit of these words, written in 1995 by Mr. Justice LaForest:

"...our society is far from having repudiated the privileged role parents exercise in the upbringing of their children. This role translates into a protected sphere of parental decision-making which is rooted in the presumption that parents should make important decisions affecting their children, both because parents are more likely to appreciate the best interests of their children, and because the state is ill-equipped to make such decisions itself."

And:

Per La Forest, L'Heureux-Dubé, Gonthier and McLachlin JJ.:

"The common law has long recognized that parents are in the best position to take care of their children and make all the decisions necessary to ensure their well-being."

—Writing for the majority in 1995; 1SCR
B. (R.) v. Children's Aid Society of Metropolitan Toronto

PUC Mission statement

To unite Canadian parents federally, provincially and locally to engage boldly and effectively in all matters affecting their children.

To protect parents' right to fiercely defend, protect, guide and nurture their children with their values, beliefs, and culture without unwarranted state interference.

ALERT!

Parents, what you
need to know

BEFORE your children

return to school in

Sept. 2017

What YOU need to know before children return to school.

There is—mandated in all schools by the BC Ministry of Education—a “sex positive” movement that parents have not been informed about. Most parents are horrified when they find out what is transpiring under the Trojan horse false flag of “anti-bullying” and “diversity”.

“Sex at Lunch” is one such program, held at Lord Byng secondary school in Vancouver. This did not appear on the school calendar, and participating students—about 250—were directed not to record, take pictures or post any information about it on social media. Grade 10-12 student participants study “porn” and the “History of Masturbation”—and ended the 2017 school year with a game show that pitted four students against four teachers. The moderator, a woman wearing tight jeans and red stiletto high heels, welcomed the kids by calling them “sex addicts.”

Some examples of the 48 questions in this ‘quiz’: “If you don’t want to masturbate, what do you eat for breakfast?”; “People who enjoy putting on fuzzy animal costumes for sexual purposes are called [what]?”; “What is the song by Cindy Lauper that’s about masturbation?”; “At what age can you legally text somebody a picture of your naked bits?”; “What does one use to perform safer oral sex on a woman?”; and “Which country has a penis and vagina festival?” .... and more.

“Out in Schools” facilitators visit schools around the province without parental consent or notification. One of the presenters uses the nom de plume “jenderfuck.” This program is financed by the Queer Film Festival’s parent organization “Out on Screen”.

Students are being subjected to psychological conditioning that breaks down common-sense thinking & logic, undermines parental authority, and promotes discrimination against anyone who doesn’t “affirm” the sex activists’ agenda.

Students are encouraged to make ‘social justice videos, and ‘winners’ get to attend a party in conjunction with the Queer Film Festival—a party that exposes them to hard-core homosexual pornography and propaganda films, like this year’s choice about a young girl who develops a crush on her female teacher.

“SOGI” (Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity) is the rebranded term for LGBTQ2+++, and it’s the most pervasive attempt yet to poison the minds of children with sex activist propaganda, and thus attack Canadian culture. This political movement is responsible for the new directions that many teachers mistakenly believe they have to adopt.

In Mission, BC schools, Mother’s Day gift-and card-making by elementary students was stopped—because the term “mother” might “offend” some students. In Langley, teachers now can’t refer to the children in their class as “boys and girls”; they must only call them “students” because a child in their class might not identify as a “boy” or “girl”. “Mom” and “Dad” are now forbidden terms, as some student may not have a parent who “identifies” as such; or maybe the child was the product of surrogacy and has two ‘dads’; or...? “Guardian” is now the accepted reference to moms and dads. Children and teachers who don’t go along with this delusion are being bullied, ostracized and shamed.

“GSA”—once known as “Gay Straight Alliance” clubs—are now being rebranded as “Gender Sex Alliances” and operate within school as a club. These political action clubs abuse are “sponsored” and led by pro-homosexual sex activists. The “sponsor” teacher or counsellor encourages the kids to pamphlet the school with sex activist propaganda, and to demand that the school participates in political action events like “Pink Shirt Day”; “Celebrate Diversity (the sexual kind) Day”; “Day against homophobia” and flying the Pride Flag to celebrate gay pride month.

Parents, please inform yourselves! Regrettably, teachers and school administrators are willing to deceive questioning parents about what is transpiring in their children’s schools. Please consult the Parents United Canada website for more (and more detailed) information. Thousands of parents are joining together from across British Columbia and Canada to protect children and our education system from this dangerous agenda.
