Mission statement

To unite Canadian parents federally, provincially and locally to engage boldly and effectively in all matters affecting their children.

To protect parents' right to fiercely defend, protect, guide and nurture their children with their values, beliefs, and culture without unwarranted state interference.

PARENTS UNITE CANADA

UNITED ~ UNSTOPPABLE ~ UNRELENTING

Why PUC?

All across Canada, parental rights are being systematically attacked. Special-interest groups have made our schools a political battleground.

The health-care system has usurped the rights of parents to be informed decision-makers. Fiscal lunacy fails to protect future generations from economic and taxation disasters.

Politicians fail to protect the civil & moral agendas of the majority of their constituents. The media deliberately fail to expose transgressions against the cultural values of the majority of Canadians.

Activist judges have ignored, violated and assaulted the very spirit of these words, written in 1995 by Mr. Justice LaForest:

“...our society is far from having repudiated the privileged role parents exercise in the upbringing of their children. This role translates into a protected sphere of parental decision-making which is rooted in the presumption that parents should make important decisions affecting their children, both because parents are more likely to appreciate the best interests of their children, and because the state is ill-equipped to make such decisions itself.”

And:

Per La Forest, L'Heureux-Dubé, Gonthier and McLachlin JJ.:

“The common law has long recognized that parents are in the best position to take care of their children and make all the decisions necessary to ensure their well-being.”

—Writing for the majority in 1995; 1SCR
B. (R.) v. Children's Aid Society of Metropolitan Toronto

Objectives

- Provide a resource where parents can access research and information about programs that affect their children
- Monitor and address government initiatives that affect parental rights. Specifically:
 - establish in law recognition of the supremacy of parental rights in all matters related to their minor children;
 - protect taxpayers' right to demand proof that they're getting value for their money;
 - provide forums of opportunity for debate, discussion and resolution.
 - equip our constituents to become an effective and influential public voice.
- Support local and provincial chapters of PUC
- Provide resource to parents and students to report teachers or other school based staff that abuse their position of trust.
- To assist parents in the complaint processes available to them.

To this end, we are here to equip our constituency with the needed resources and information to leverage their involvement within the government institutions that play a role in the lives of their children.

PUC Works

PUC unites Canadian parents who work together for the common good.

PUC strives to expose, denounce and defeat programs, political agendas, or other enterprises that seek to weaken the family unit, undermine parental authority, exploit children and/or silence the voices of those who responsibly exercise their parental duties.

PUC advocates on behalf of families, provides research and resources to enable our stakeholders to have and to be an effective and influential representative voice in local, provincial and national affairs.

Acknowledgment

*We recognize, as loving parents and responsible citizens, that we must unite our voices, our votes and our values to protect our children, future generations, and the nation. And as such, united as parents, grandparents and engaged citizens, we will work to stop the erosion of parental rights, and political agendas that have assaulted our nation and placed our children in harm's way. Enough is enough. It stops now!
